

Safety on the Internet Highway

Learn how to educate staff and customers about avoiding dangers online

With

Joel Gabel—Google Hardware Operations

Larry Boggess, OSBI—Internet Crimes

Wesley Fryer—Education for AT&T
“Beyond the Fear Factor”

Monday, May 12, 2008
Midwest City Public Library
8143 E. Reno Ave
9:30-3:15
CEUs: .53

Of interest to all

Sponsored by the Public Library Division

Workshop Registration—Safety on the Internet Highway
Registration Deadline: May 5, 2008 (space limited)

Name _____

Institution _____

E-mail _____ Phone: _____

Registration fee: $50.00 Non-member: $100.00 (includes Lunch, w/vegetarian choice)

Method of payment check Visa Mastercard Purchase Order

Credit Card # _____ Expires _____

Mail Registration form to: Kay Boies, OLA, 300 Hardy Drive, Edmond, OK 73013
Or fax to 405-525-5103 or register online @ www.oklibs.org/

- Learn to
- Manage the Challenges of Social Networking Sites, Blogs, IM and Other places online
 - Educate Customers & Legislators about the Benefits vs. Dangers of Online Networking

For more information, contact Lynda Reynolds,
Stillwater Public
Library, 405.372.3633 ext. 101

Safety on the Internet Highway

Program Agenda

9:00 – 9:30a.m.	Registration & Coffee	Midwest City Library
9:30 – 10:30 a.m.	Internet Safety Issues	Joel Gabel, Google Executive
10:30 – 10:45 a.m.	Morning Break
10:45 – 11:45 a.m	Internet Crimes	Larry Boggess, OSBI
11:45-12:10p.m.	Q & A for OSBI and Google
12:10- 12:45p.m.	Lunch on-site
12:45-1:45p.m.	“Beyond the Fear Factor”	Wesley Fryer, AT&T Executive
1:45-2:00p.m.	Afternoon Break
2:00-3:00p.m.	Educating Customers & Legislators about the benefits vs. dangers of online networking with Wesley Fryer
3:00-3:15p.m.	Wrap-up and completion of evaluation	